

DEQ/EPA/LWG Meeting on Stormwater in Portland Harbor
October 26, 2006
1:00 – 5:00 PM
Stoel Rives

Attendees:

DEQ: Jim Anderson, Karen Tarnow, Tom Roick, Keith Johnson, Bruce Hope, Matt McClincy

EPA: Chip Humphreys, Eric Blischke, Kristine Koch

LWG:

DRAFT AGENDA

- I. Introductions (15 minutes)
- II. Identify Desired Outcomes: (15 minutes)
 - DEQ
 - Provide and overview and update of DEQ's stormwater source control efforts
 - Gain insights into LWG's stormwater evaluation strategy
 - Identify opportunities for coordination
 - EPA
 - LWG
- III. DEQ's Stormwater Source Control and Evaluation Activities (Keith Johnson, 1 hour)
 - Overview of stormwater source control objectives and activities,
 - City of Portland's Outfall Remedial Investigation and how this fits in to DEQ's overall source control effort
 - Current data collection efforts and timeline for future data collection
 - Discussion/questions
- IV. LWG's Stormwater Evaluation Plans and Activities (1 hour)
 - Intended approach for evaluating stormwater
 - Data needs
 - Data collection plan
 - Questions and discussion
- V. Evaluating Stormwater Impacts Using the Fate and Transport Model (Bruce Hope, 1 hour)
 - Model overview and potential uses
 - Examples of initial stormwater modeling scenarios (planned)
 - Questions and discussion

- VI. Discussion: (1 hour)
- Coordination needs and strategies for achieving them
 - Timeline implications
 - Outstanding issues

- VII. Wrap Up and Next Steps (30 minutes)